

The Indemnification Clause is an obligation the subcontractor makes to defend and compensate the General Contractor for any harm, liability or loss arising out of their work.

Insurance Requirements are in place to provide the means to pay for potential losses and to satisfy the obligation of the indemnification agreement.

Waiving insurance requirements or not having the proper endorsements can bring forth a situation where you are paying a large claim out of pocket

